WILLIAM RANDOLPH HEARST
Leading Candidate for the Democratic Nomination for the Presidency.

Within the last few months, Mr. Hearst has grown so rapidly in popular favor as candidate for the Democratic nomination for the Presidency that everything concerning him is of public interest.

It may not be generally known to the readers of the REGISTER that Mr. Hearst comes of that sturdy Missouri stock that blazed the way of civilization in the New West and laid the foundations of the growth and greatness of our own State of Missouri, his grandfather, William G. Hearst, having emigrated from South Carolina in 1805 and settled in Washington county. A few years later he moved to Franklin county, where George Hearst, the father of William Randolph, was born. George Hearst worked on a farm until he was 28 years old, when in 1849 he caught the California gold fever, and drove a wagon overland to California, where he became a successful miner, and later United States Senator.

William Randolph Hearst, the only son of George and Phoebe A. Hearst, is a graduate of Harvard College; in religion he is an Episcopalian. He is to-day the best known newspaper man and publisher in the United States, having four great newspapers—the New York American, the Chicago American and Examiner, the San Francisco Examiner, and the Los Angeles News-Herald. He will establish another paper in Boston within a few weeks, and early in June will establish another in St. Louis.

Mr. Hearst has been a faithful Democrat, giving to Mr. Bryan and the Democratic party in the last two Presidential campaigns earnest, unwavering support.

When Bryan was first nominated the greatest pressure was brought upon Mr. Hearst to take the line of other newspaper proprietors in the East and abandon the ticket. His paper was just gaining headway, and it was making its effort in the heart of the gold district. It was pointed out to him that to support the Democratic ticket would be to alienate the merchants of New York, the very people the paper had to depend on for its support. Mr. Hearst's reply was simply: "I am a Democrat, and no mere question of personal profit or loss will induce me to turn my back on my party. I will support the ticket if I do not print an advertisement in New York." And he did support the ticket loyally. Four years later he repeated his efforts to aid the success of the Democratic party. The great need of the campaign was funds. The enormous aggregated interests of the trusts were all on the side of the Republicans. Mr. Hearst, at the request of the party leaders, accepted the presidency of the National Association of Democratic Clubs. He immediately issued a proclamation agreeing to duplicate every contribution made by the clubs. It is said that in the two last national campaigns Mr. Hearst gave $250,000. Throughout the last national campaign he was especially active.

Mr. Hearst has, during the past seven years, done more work of constructive statesmanship than probably any other Democrat. He represents popular opinion as no one else does. He has antagonized no factions. If the plain people love him the Democratic leaders who know him esteem and respect him. He has no personal enemies among them. His course has been indorsed by a majority of the labor organizations of the country at various times. The Virginia Federation of Labor, representing 40,000 men, adopted eulogistic resolutions at its last State convention in Richmond. The Building Trades Council of America, in convention at Denver, unanimously adopted resolutions eulogizing him.

Several hundred newspapers and many prominent Democrats have declared for him for President. More than a thousand volunteer clubs have been formed, and their sole purpose is to elevate Mr. Hearst to the Presidency. Never before was such a feeling for an individual demonstrated so far in advance of the convention.

Rich enough to satisfy honest wealth that he will be a conservator of legitimate business interests, he is the acknowledged champion of the masses. Jeffersonian enough for the most exacting Democrat. Honest enough to be beyond the reach of corruption. Patriotic enough to consider the country as a whole. Western enough to have been born in the West and Eastern enough to conduct a great enterprise in the metropolis. Politician enough to obtain the greatest popular indorsement at the polls ever given any one in New York State. Young enough to be progressive and aggressive, yet old enough to have exceeded Bryan's age when the latter was nominated in 1896 and Roosevelt's age when Roosevelt was nominated in 1900.

Philanthropic enough to endow seats of learning, sell coal at cost to the freezing poor and give away hot coffee and sandwiches nightly to New York's homeless and starving thousands in the winter time. Humanitarian enough to promptly relieve sufferers from public disaster here and abroad. Statesman enough to show the Democratic party the path of duty and opportunity, to indicate to the President that the South should be let alone, to crystallize the issues of the day and name the remedies for public ills, to stand for a true republic—one that represents all the people of the country.

As the venerable Adlai Stevenson said in an eloquent public speech in New York, "Hearst is a name to conjure with wherever Democrats are gathered."

More Riots.

Disturbances of strikers are not nearly as grave as an individual disorder of the system. Overwork, loss of sleep, nervous tension will be followed by utter collapse, unless a reliable remedy is immediately employed. There is nothing so efficient to cure disorders of the Liver or the Kidneys as Electric Bitters. It's a wonderful tonic, and effective nerve and the greatest all around medicine for run down systems. It dispels Nervousness, Rheumatism and Neuralgia and expels Malaria germs. Only 50c, and satisfaction guaranteed by Arcadia Valley Drug Co.

So Sweet and Pleasant in Taste!

Mrs. C. Peterson, 625 Lake St., Topeka, Kan., speaking of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, says: "It has never failed to give entire satisfaction, and of all cough remedies, it is my favorite, and I must confess to my many friends that it will do, and has done, what is claimed for it—to speedily cure a cough or a cold; and it is so sweet and so pleasing in taste." 25c, 50c and $1.00 bottle at Arcadia Valley Drug Co.

SNOWFLAKE.

Tragedy Averted.

"Just in the nick of time our little boy was saved," writes Mrs. W. Watkins of Pleasant City, Ohio.

"Pneumonia had played sad havoc with him and a terrible cough set in besides. Doctors treated him, but he grew worse every day. At length we tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and our darling was saved. He's now sound, and well." Everybody ought to know, it's the only sure cure for Coughs, Colds and all Lung diseases. Guaranteed by Arcadia Valley Drug Co. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

Those who express righteous indignation at what they term a growing contempt for the courts should busy themselves in the work of making the courts more entitled to respect. In view of many court actions and decisions the masses are not to be censured for believing that justice receives little consideration in many cases. The case of ex-Mayor Ames of Minneapolis is one in point. Ames was tried and convicted of accepting a bribe from a fund raised for the purpose of corrupting public officials. The Minnesota Supreme Court, however, overruled the lower court and released Ames, deciding that he did not receive the bribe from a fund, but from individuals. If there is a growing contempt for the courts, that growth will be hastened by decisions of that kind.—The Commonwealth.

It Saved His Leg.

P. A. Danforth of LaGrange, Ga., suffered for six months with a frightful running sore on his leg; but writes that Bucklen's Arnica Salve wholly cured it in five days. For Ulcers, Wounds, Piles, it's the best salve in the world. Cure guaranteed. Only 25 cts. Sold by Arcadia Valley Drug Co.

The so-called Democratic newspapers that do not support the ticket are still engaged in the work of selecting a Democratic ticket, but they are meeting with many embarrassments. They started to boom one man and found next day that he was a director in the steel trust. It was a sad blow, but they soon got busy again.

Working Overtime.

Eight hour laws are ignored by those tireless, little workers—Dr. King's New Life Pills. Millions are always at work, night and day, curing Indigestion, Bilelessness, Constipation, Sick Headache and all Stomach, Liver and Bowel troubles. Easy, pleasant, safe, sure.
